

South Kentuckian.

CHAS. M. MEACHAM, EDITOR.

HOPKINSVILLE, FEB. 7, 1882

Democratic State Ticket.

For Clerk of the Court of Appeals,
THOS. J. HENRY,
OF MORGAN COUNTY.

Is the Commercial the organ of the Republicans or the Jacobites? an answer p. 4.

Arizona and Idaho both want to be admitted as States, along with Dakota. They will probably be requested to wait awhile.

The Republicans and Readjusters are not dwelling together in brotherly love and unity in Virginia. The coalition will not last.

Messrs. Bransford & Woodson, the energetic publishers of the Owensboro Messenger have opened a staple and fancy stationery house in connection with their printing establishment.

A bill has been introduced in the House recommending a return to Den 33, as the time of meeting of the Legislature. It is quite likely that the bill will pass.

Thomas of the Greenback Echo "walked off on his ear" last week because we gave him some fatherly advice. You can show your independence, Robert, without being cross with your friends.

Up to February 1, Rev. Geo. O. Barnes' work in Louisville had resulted in 944 professions and 521 baptisms. He has been preaching three sermons a day for six weeks. From Louisville he will go to Paris and Bowling Green.

David Davis announces his intention to vote with the Republicans to admit Dakota into the Union as a State. Dakota will give the Republicans two new Senators and this is sufficient reason for them to advocate its admission.

The whipping post bill was again defeated in the House last week by only one vote. Mr. Brannith voted against it and his vote defeated the bill. We do not believe he reflected the will of a majority of his constituents by voting as he did.

A bill to punish wife beaters by whipping was defeated in the Legislature last week. This doesn't speak much for the gallantry of the members, but they probably thought, and rightly too, that the less they had to do with matters concerning other men's wives the better it would be for them.

Will Owens seems to be rather a prominent name in Kentucky just now. Will Owens, of Scott, is Speaker of the House of Representatives. Will Owens, of Somerset killed his man the other day and Will Owens, of Louisville, was shot down last week by his brother-in-law for whipping his wife.

De Freycinet has succeeded Gambetta as prime minister of France. He formed a cabinet without delay and declared that the policy of the government would be to establish peace at home and abroad, and advocate firm and conciliatory measures looking to the liberty and progress of France.

Miss Ella Allen was allowed $200 from S. C. Robinson, at Sidney, Ohio, for a kiss. Robinson was a married man and stole a kiss from Ella while she was stopping at his house, for which she brought suit for damages. The court allowed $200 and remarked that the amount was a very fair price for a kiss.

Col. E. Polk Johnson, of Louisville, at present assistant clerk of the House of Representatives, is being very favorably mentioned in connection with the Lieutenant-Governorship. He is well qualified, capable, experienced and in every way worthy of the position.

The Vaneburg Courier in a column article, favors the disruption of the Democratic party, although it professes to have no sympathy for the Jacobites. Our opinion, after reading the article in the Courier, is that the editor is merely seeking a little cheap notoriety.

Seaville's motion for a new trial in the Guitau case was overruled by Judge Cox last Saturday and the assassin sentenced to be hanged June 30. An appeal will be taken to the higher court but there is no hope for the murderer. Judge Cox consulted with the Supreme Judges before making any of his important decisions and the Supreme court is certain to affirm his decision in the case.

The usually level-headed editor of the Louisville Democrat takes issue with us upon the question of "State sectionalism." If we may use such a term. He thinks a delegate to a State convention should begin voting for the candidate nearest to him and continue doing so till a nomination is reached.—Hopkinsville Kentuckian.

You are totally mistaken. No issue was taken with you, but simple a plausible explanation offered for Mr. Thos. J. Henry. We wanted to let that gentleman down softly from the hot trouble you were in. That's all. We would not like to take issue with the unusually level-headed editor of the Kentuckian, though we give him one for calling us an "old married man." It's the old wife who, not the married part.

The Bolters.

The Bolters held a meeting at Louisville last week and "newly elected" a candidate for Clerk of the Court of Appeals. There were only eleven present, but to read the account of the meeting in the Commercial one would be led to conclude that there was danger of the immediate disruption of the Democratic party. The "meeting" was organized by the selection of Jan. H. McHenry, Chairman and a member of the Commercial staff, Secretary. A number of letters from broken-down politicians and chronic soreheads were then read. A letter was also read from Col. Wolford in which he declined to join the bolters, and announced his intention to support the Democratic nominee. The following resolution was then adopted:

Resolved, That Col. J. H. McHenry, Chairman of this meeting, be, and is authorized, to correspond with, select and appoint a general State or Central Committee of this party, to consist of one member from each Congressional district, and one each from Covington, Newport, Lexington, Frankfort, Bowling Green, Henderson, Owensboro, Paducah, Hopkinsville, and five from the city of Louisville, of which committee the present chairman of this meeting shall be chairman, and which committee, as soon as appointed, shall be called together by the chairman, at a convenient place, to select five of their number who shall form an executive committee, one of whom shall be chairman of the executive committee, and shall also be Vice President of the State committee.

Col. R. T. Jacob, who was Lieutenant Governor on the ticket with Bramlette, was then "nominated" for Clerk of the Court of Appeals and accepted in a lengthy card which was published in the Commercial.

After this the "meeting" adjourned having decided upon a "ratifying" mass meeting to be held Feb. 28, in Louisville. McHenry, the boss kisser, and "leader" of the new "party" was then interviewed by the Commercial reporter. The following extract is the facsimile portion of the interview:

"All of the Union Democrats are with us, and it is not only so in my district, but the same feeling, that the movement is a step in the right direction, exists all over the State."

"What will be the result of the movement?"

Well, as you know, by our proceedings to-day, we have decided upon placing Governor Jacob before the people as a candidate for the position of Clerk of Court of Appeals. He is one of the most respected citizens of the Commonwealth, and has the confidence of the entire population, both Democrats, Republicans and Greenbackers alike. He is a man whom we people can trust. His knowledge and ability are well known, and with only the best interests of the community at heart. The result will be, in my opinion, that he will be the next Clerk of the Court of Appeals."

"How do you expect your plan as being able to secure enough votes to elect him?"

"When the Democrats see the magnitude of this movement, they will come over to us and give their support to a man whom they know is entitled to respect and respect for services rendered to his country in the past."

"Do you only count on Democratic votes to elect Governor Jacob?"

"Oh, no, I have letters in my pocket now from the most prominent and influential Republicans in the State who say that should we nominate Governor Jacob for the position they would not nominate a candidate, but would give their hearty support to our man. Now, this comes not from a few Republicans, but from a large number who have the entire control of the State."

The latter paragraph left the cat out of the bag and explains the whole object of the movement. It is merely the plan the few disappointed office-seekers who are into the movement, have adopted to get into the Republican camp. They have severed their allegiance to the Democratic party and of course their next step will be to join the Republicans. The Commercial is encouraging and aiding the bolters and of course it would not do this unless it saw that the Republican party would be benefited. No true Democrat has sanctioned the move thus far and none will. Wolford, Buell, Gravelle, Maroon and others of the prominent Union Democrats of the State have all excoriated McHenry for his traitorous bolt.

McHenry's resolution, provides for the appointment of a committeeman in this city. He will not find one here. If he has a sympathizer in this county, he has not made himself known. There are Union Democrats in the county, but they are Democrats on principle and not from greed of office. Let McHenry and his crew do their worst, they can only meet and receive the contempt of all true Democrats whether they were the blue or the gray.

The trial of Ellis Craft, the second of the Ashland murderers, was concluded last Saturday and the murderer sentenced to be hanged. Neal, it will be remembered, was sentenced some days since. The trial of Ellis, the informer, will take place this week. It is thought that he will be sent to the penitentiary for life, but many think he should hang with the others.

It is said that the Ma di-Gras Carnival at New Orleans, this year will eclipse all preceding ones "in the grandeur of its conception, the magnificence of its pageants and the unparalleled gorgeousness of its Oriental spectacular displays." The programme will open Feb. 10th, and close March 20th.

Col. Jones' article, in another column, came too late to receive attention this week. Col. Jones displays a purulent and acrimonious spirit, in his card, not entirely consistent with a dignified and forcible presentation of his case.

NONSENSE.

"That was a bare-breasted escapade," remarked Bliffins, when he shot at a rabbit and missed it.

The Bowling Green Democrat calls the whipping post a "relic, etc." Whose willow is it?

The Auburn Courierer took the Louisville Democrat last week, while nosing around for the "ablest democratic paper published in Kentucky."

A handsome cask was offered to the prettiest young lady in Havensville last week to be decided by a vote of the boys. Miss Lelia Bush took the cask."

A good many people who are so clamorous about the suppression of polygamy would do well to remember what the Bible says about throwing rocks.

The arcotomys monax emerged from his subterranean abode last Thursday at noon, beheld his admiration and returned to await the close of winter, six weeks longer.

There are 29 candidates for county offices announced in the Hartford Herald. The people of Ohio county, like the people of the State of the same name, seem to be a race of office seekers.

The modern Jacob will have to work more than fourteen years before he can win the Rachel of his ambition and get to be Clerk of the Court of Appeals. He too will see a ladder about the first of August and McHenry and other Jacobites will be the angels climbing it.

WANTED: A sorehead and "busted" politician in Hopkinsville to join the Jacobites. Such a party will be given a place on the "State committee" and have his name published in the Louisville Commercial as a "representative and prominent Democrat of Christian county." Address: Ima. H. McHenry, originator, leader, and sole patentee, Owensboro, Ky.

Two Louisville physicians stole the heart of a young lady while they were holding her autopsy over her dead body last week and are about to get themselves into trouble. We have made it one of the settled rules of our life never to steal the hearts of young ladies, not even when they are alive. We have had our own heart stolen by the fair creatures though, and we didn't raise any fuss about it.

As Jacob is to be the leader of the bolters they had better be called Jacobites.

Seaville is said to be writing to sell Guitau's body for exhibition in a side show. The government will not likely permit such a course.

Mr. Marshall W. Neal has bought out the half interest of Mr. Snoddy in the Glasgow Times and the firm is now Woods & Neal. Dr. Woods will continue in charge of the editorial department.

NEWPORT, KY.

Jan. 25, 1882.

Mr. Chas. M. Meacham, Editor of South Kentuckian, Hopkinsville, Ky.

DEAR SIR:

Some one, perhaps your self, if so, I thank you, has sent me to-day a copy of your paper containing an editorial headed by my name which I have to say is totally untrue and without foundation from beginning to ending, so far indeed as to my connection I may have had with the late convention at Frankfort. I can not believe that the author, whose name may be, has willfully made such statements, but has done so being misinformed, or through an entire misapprehension of the facts.

In the first place, I was not a delegate to the convention, had no vote or voice in it and at no time did I have anything to do with the convention at Frankfort. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to Newport, especially to Capt. Gaines and Capt. Henry. I never met in consultation with the delegation from Campbell or Kentucky counties. I did not attend any meeting at which the delegates were appointed and made no suggestion in regard to any. When after they were appointed, some of whom asked my opinion as to their duty, I said I thought they, in the first place ought to vote for our own district candidates, as such was the custom, and when they were dropped, as to the various candidates from other sections of the State, I could take no part and had no suggestions to make. I equally respected them all. I was very frank in using the same language substantially to these various candidates who called upon me during their visits to

HOPKINSVILLE, FEB. 7, 1882.

Our subscription rates were reduced Oct. 13, 1881, to $1.50 strictly cash in advance. All unpaid subscriptions, beginning prior to that date, will be charged at old rates (10c per copy). No subscriptions are taken now except for cash in advance, and all papers will be stopped when out, unless promptly renewed.

SOCIALITIES.

Rev. V. M. Metcalfe is at home again.

Mr. C. A. Thompson returned last week after a month's visit to Memphis and other places.

Mr. Pate Jeff, son, one of the "boys from Caliz," who loves the ladies in the city since last year.

Mr. J. D. Walker returned from the South last Saturday after an absence of several months.

Mr. Phil G. Fisher, of Harrodsburg, who formerly lived here, is visiting his brother Mr. Nat G. Fisher.

Julius Grace and Mr. Garrett arrived Sunday. The former is boarding at Mrs. Armstrong's and the latter at the Central.

Thos. H. Beyerley, Henderson, W. S. Gilbert, O. G. Brown, and Chas. C. Moore, Lexington, were among the visitors to the city last week.

Dr. Howard H. Wallace has returned home again after attending the medical school at Louisville for several months. He will graduate in one more session.

Mr. L. V. Gaines, of Cadiz, passed through the city Sunday en route for Colorado where he will make his home. We wish him much success in his new field of operation.

Mr. Geo. Hart has taken a position with Forbes & Galt as traveling salesman for their implement house. He is a popular young gentleman and no experienced hand of machines.

Mr. J. E. Griffin, came up last week to swap yarn with C. C. Cooper. He returned to Cadiz Saturday after receiving his allegiance to the South Kentuckian.

Mr. and Mrs. Chaffin.

At last Hopkinsville is to be visited by a first class entertainment. Mr. and Mrs. Chaffin will present three pieces this week. On Friday evening "New First Lesson" will be played for the first time in this city. On Saturday afternoon there will be a matinee at which "Comilla" will be presented by Mrs. Chaffin. Saturday evening Mr. Chaffin will appear in his greatest character, "Rik, the Arkansas Traveler." The following notice is from the Courier-Journal:

Mrs. Chaffin is an actress of the first order, cultured in all the degrees of the stage. In her present appearance she distinguishes by an uncommon ability, that adds to the particular charm to the refinement of her dramatic manner. Her personations are invested with something of her own sweetness of temperament, and she rises from all the scenes, even the most trivial, with a grace and ease that is a rare and valuable asset. Her personations are invested with something of her own sweetness of temperament, and she rises from all the scenes, even the most trivial, with a grace and ease that is a rare and valuable asset.

The State Journal also adds:

The acting of Mrs. Henrietta Chaffin in "Comilla" at Hopkinsville yesterday afternoon, was a great surprise to all the home who understood good acting. She was thought by many superior to Fanny Davenport in some parts of the play and her equal in others. She presents equally as fine an appearance on the stage and her wardrobe is magnificent.

Mr. Chaffin has appeared once in "Rik" in this city, and needs no commendation from us to draw a full house. The prices of admission will be $1.00 reserved seats without extra charge. Matinee 75 cents, reserved seats without extra charge, children under 9 years 25 cents. Tickets will be placed on sale at Gish & Gardner at 9 o'clock to-morrow morning.

JANUARY JOY.

Twenty Two Weddings.

Henry Wolfe to Miss Frances J. Bistof, Feb. 2, 1882.

Wm. W. Laidley to Miss J. B. Laidley, Feb. 2, 1882.

Geo. M. Warren to Miss J. A. Cravens, Feb. 2, 1882.

Wm. L. Allen to Miss Anna Wade, Feb. 2, 1882.

Wm. L. Allen to Miss Anna Wade, Feb. 2, 1882.

Wm. L. Allen to Miss Anna Wade, Feb. 2, 1882.

Wm. L. Allen to Miss Anna Wade, Feb. 2, 1882.

Wm. L. Allen to Miss Anna Wade, Feb. 2, 1882.

Wm. L. Allen to Miss Anna Wade, Feb. 2, 1882.

Wm. L. Allen to Miss Anna Wade, Feb. 2, 1882.

Wm. L. Allen to Miss Anna Wade, Feb. 2, 1882.

Wm. L. Allen to Miss Anna Wade, Feb. 2, 1882.

Wm. L. Allen to Miss Anna Wade, Feb. 2, 1882.

Wm. L. Allen to Miss Anna Wade, Feb. 2, 1882.

Wm. L. Allen to Miss Anna Wade, Feb. 2, 1882.

Wm. L. Allen to Miss Anna Wade, Feb. 2, 1882.

Wm. L. Allen to Miss Anna Wade, Feb. 2, 1882.

Wm. L. Allen to Miss Anna Wade, Feb. 2, 1882.

Wm. L. Allen to Miss Anna Wade, Feb. 2, 1882.

Wm. L. Allen to Miss Anna Wade, Feb. 2, 1882.

Wm. L. Allen to Miss Anna Wade, Feb. 2, 1882.

Wm. L. Allen to Miss Anna Wade, Feb. 2, 1882.

Wm. L. Allen to Miss Anna Wade, Feb. 2, 1882.

Wm. L. Allen to Miss Anna Wade, Feb. 2, 1882.

Wm. L. Allen to Miss Anna Wade, Feb. 2, 1882.

HERE AND THERE.

Lent begins February 26th.

There are 177 cases on file for this term of Circuit Court.

The Woman's Charity Association will meet to-morrow evening at the Baptist church.

The white society met last Friday night at the residence of Dr. A. P. Campbell.

The repairs on the Circuit Court room have not been finished and will have to be held in the city court room.

Mrs. Sallie Hester, wife of John Hester, died at her home near Newstead, Jan. 15, in the 42 year of her age.

Snow falling on the streets was a nuisance last week, and the police should not have allowed it. It was dangerous to walk the streets.

A pyret washing machine has been one of the sensations on exhibition in the city for the past week. It beats anything of the kind we have ever seen.

Snow four inches in depth fell on the 25th ult, but remained on the ground only two days. Sleighbells jingled incessantly Monday and Monday night, as the moon was shining brightly.

Noctua has as yet been found to the robber of the mail near Church Hill last week. The amount of money taken from the registered packages was not more than ten of fifteen dollars.

The Public Schools opened just one year ago today, with 224 pupils. The number of matriculants this session has already reached 524, an increase of just two hundred. Our schools are destined to become the pride of our city.

The law requires that the deputies appointed by the Assessor be "sober, discreet, and capable persons not under the age of 21 years." Mr. Means asks us to state this for the information of those who apply to him for positions.

Our friend Wm. D. Summers was in out office a few days since to renew his subscription to the South Kentuckian. He informed us that his surplus has last year will reach nearly 3,000 bales, and his surplus corn 1,200 bushels.

Mr. El Dismukes, of the southern part of the county, left this week for Barlow City, Ballard county, to live. Before starting he came in and insured himself to get the news for the next twelve months, by securing a paid up policy in the South Kentuckian.

Mr. B. H. Steff, the leading Nashville Jeweler advertises with us this week. Mr. Steff is well known to many of our patrons as a perfect gentleman and a reliable business man. His stock is elegant and complete, and his prices are so low that they would astonish you. Don't go to Nashville without calling on him, at No. 17, Union Street.

The members of the Athenaeum Society of South Kentucky College are making active preparations to begin the publication of an organ to be issued monthly. The first number will appear about the 15th. Jas. S. McKay, J. H. Hardy and John F. H. will constitute the editorial staff. It will be a four column folio.

Alex. Webb, a brother of Mr. Joe Webb of this city, died in Clarksville, Tenn., Jan. 26, aged 45 years. He was a native of Lumberton, Germany, came to the United States in 1854 and located in Clarksville in 1876. He was regarded as an honorable upright gentleman. He was a member of the Knights of Honor Lodge in Clarksville.

A hunting party went into Mr. J. N. Riddell's fields, near Beyerly, Tuesday, hunting rabbits. The premises had been posted for several years and the hares had about taken possession. After hunting several hours, the rabbits slain were counted and it was found that 230 had been killed. This may seem rather incredible, but if any one doubts the truth of this statement, the hunters can show him the guns they were killed with.

Why can't Hopkinsville keep up with the times and begin to put on city airs. We will soon have gas and the next progressive step will be to name the streets and number the houses. This could be done with but very little expense and would be a great convenience to strangers. Let the names of the streets be put on the lamps and the houses on the principal streets, if not on all, be numbered.

The first social entertainment given by the Ladies of the Baptist Church to raise funds to upholster the seats, was at Mr. H. G. Abernathy's last Friday evening and was well attended. An admission fee of ten cents was charged and the money taken in amounted to $8.40. Miss Westfall favored the company with a selection which she read in her usual, excellent manner. The next social will be at Mr. S. G. Buckner's on next Thursday evening from 8 till 11 o'clock. Admission the same. All and especially the young ladies and gentlemen are invited.

Our Gas Works.

Hopkinsville is to be lighted with gas, the contractors are now at work and with favorable weather gas will be turned on in about sixty days. While it is true that this is a private enterprise, it is also a public one, and which every citizen should encourage and support in every way. We feel assured that the builders will not have cause to complain of the lack of appreciation on the part of our people, we are just as refined and capable of enjoying the luxuries of life as the people of other cities, and we mean to use gas and lots of it. The following communication from G. W. Harris, Town signally prominent citizen explains how the light is there.

The undersigned, citizens of Galatin, hereby testify to the superior quality of the gas light now in use. The gas works erected for this city by Chess, Carley & Co.

We had the light pure, brilliant and free from odor, and costing at the rate of about one cent per hour, which is considered by our people about as cheap as coal lamps.

The illuminating power is apparent about equal to that in cities generally, and it is meeting fully the expectations of our people.

John B. Foster, Mayor of Galatin; Thos. W. Woodson, M. D. Alderman; W. C. Montgomery, Alderman; N. E. Blue & Co., Pub. Examers; Thos. H. King, Clerk; A. A. Lewis & Son, Pub. Tennessee; G. W. Harris, Merchant; C. Levy & Bro., Merchants; H. H. Crockett, Franklin & Co., Jas. House, Tin and Stoves; Schell & Bro., Druggists; J. W. Walton & Son, Merchants; Montgomery & Hecht, Druggists; W. M. Montgomery, Merchant; D. K. Spillers, Merchant.

The quarterly conference of the Methodist churches of the Russellville district met in this city Sunday. Presiding Elder Browder, is now conducting a protracted meeting at the Methodist church.

Yesterday was a lovely day for Circuit Court. It was like a spring day.

There will be a dance at Mozart Hall to night. No tickets are issued.

Mr. M. Galt has disposed of his stock of goods to Mr. Geo. G. Ellis.

The show of the season this week.

Thief Overhauled.

James Beckwith was arrested and lodged in jail Friday, charged with robbing a man in Hancock county, Mo. The robbery was committed some time since and Beckwith succeeded in getting away. He arrived here about a month ago and has been working on the farm of Dick Miles, who lives about six miles from this city. Miles happened to know the man who was robbed. He found out from letters received by Beckwith that he was from Hancock county, Mo., and thereupon concluded that he might be the man wanted there. He informed his friend who had been robbed and last Friday Sheriff Helm, of Hancock county, arrived in this city and in company with Chief of Police Biggerstaff went to Miles' and bagged the game. He proved to be the thief wanted and he was placed in jail to await a requisition from the Governor. He is a sharp fellow and it was a mere accident that he was tracked up and caught. He will be taken back to Illinois to answer for the deeds done in the body. He is a young man of good appearance and address.

Strikers.

The hands employed by W. W. Phillips in laying gas pipes, at sixty and 75 cents per day, struck for higher wages last Wednesday. They refused to work themselves or allow any one else to work for less than $1.25 a day. There were about fifty of the strikers and work was stopped for the balance of the week. Yesterday morning a compromise was effected and they went to work again in a body at $1.25 a day, their tools to be kept in repair by the contractor. The work is now progressing rapidly.

The plasterers in the city also struck for higher wages last Thursday, and their wages were increased fifty cents per day. They then resumed work immediately, and the trouble was adjusted without the loss of much time. The hard times and high prices make it almost impossible for laborers to live, working at even a dollar a day. Fuel, provisions, rent and everything has gone up and the wages of the laborers have remained the same as they were when everything was cheap.

OBITUARY.

Died, in Charleston, S. C., Jan. 24, 1882, Wm. H. Burbridge in the 27th year of his age.

William Henry Burbridge, the subject of this sketch, was born in Georgetown, Scott county, Kentucky, Sept. 21, 1855 and was consequently at the time of his death 26 years four months and three days old. He was a son of Thos. B. and Susan Henry Burbridge and was the oldest of a family of six children.

His father died some twelve or fifteen years ago and as he was the oldest son it devolved upon him to assist his mother in the task of bringing up and educating the younger children. In 1870 Mrs. Burbridge was appointed post-mistress in this city and will become her assistant in the postoffice. He was even then a steady, reliable boy, attentive to business and courteous to all. He remained in the office for several years and acquired a thorough knowledge of the business. He afterwards, engaged in several different kinds of business and, whether as a farmer, a salesman, or as mail clerk on the local train, he was always the same genial, jovial, accommodating gentleman. About a year ago he was offered a subordinate position on the Charleston and Savannah railroad, as a postal clerk. He accepted the place and it did not take his superiors long to find out that he was too valuable an assistant to be in a small office. So he was promoted to a position that paid him a good salary and allowed him to be at leisure one day in three. He continued to fill this place till the time of his death. Had he been less obliging than he was he would to day be living, but it was always a pleasure to him to serve his friends, and he slept beneath the soil today, having laid down his life for a friend. On the morning of Jan. 20, it being his day to lay off, one of his associates, a particular friend, came to him and asked him to make his trip for him. He consented, little thinking that the "trip" would be to the other world. The train left Charleston that day and as it was returning the next and had almost reached the city, the fearful collision (with the circumstances of which our readers have been made acquainted) occurred and among the fatally injured was the noble hearted Burbridge. He lived for three days suffering intensely. His became unconscious in a few hours and even with his mother reaching his side to soothe his dying moments, he failed to recognize her. Death ended his agonies and his earthly career was over.

As a friend he was true even unto death; as a son he was kind and affectionate; as an officer faithful and attentive; as a companion, popular with all; as a business man, straight forward and upright in all his dealings; as a gentleman the soul of honor, generous to a fault and true to his principles. He had been a consistent member of the Baptist Church for several years. He was a fine specimen of physical manhood. Life indeed looked bright to him, but he was suddenly cut down while in the enjoyment of health and buoyant with hope. He sleeps in his grave on yonder hill side and will only live hereafter in the memories of his friends.

His mother, his sister and his brothers are not alone in their grief. Wherever there is one who knew Will Burbridge, there is one whose heart bleeds in the contemplation of his untimely fate. May he rest in peace in his early grave and may the rest lightly upon the noble form beneath, may the winds of heaven sigh a requiem over the little mound above him and may God comfort and sustain his mother in this her time of affliction and sorrow.

Mr. R. L. Taylor, the agent of the Chaffin was in the city yesterday. He placed the price of reserved seats at only $1. Twenty-five cents less than anywhere this season. Our people should show their appreciation of his kindness by giving the company crowded houses.

OBITUARY.

Died—in Stockton, January, 10th, 1882, Frances E. Lee Woodruff, daughter of D. M. Woodruff, Judge of the Cedar county probate court.

She was born in Christian county, Ky., June 1st, 1845, and with her parents and family, came to Stockton in the fall of 1870.

She had been ill for several days but no person, not even the members of the family, realized that she was in a dangerous condition, until half an hour or less before she died, and her sudden and unexpected death created a shock of surprise to our whole community.

"Bessie" as she was familiarly called, was a lady possessed of fine education; intelligent, and full of sparkling wit, and a writer in our Literary Societies and newspaper correspondence will amply testify. In sickness she was an ever faithful friend, not counting her acts of kindness and sympathy to her friends as a duty, but as a pleasure, and extending it wherever she could do good, alike among the wealthy, the humble and the lowly, as many now living can bear witness, and could those silent occupants of the cemetery where she now sweetly sleeps speak many of them and tell of how she has helped the bed of affliction and helped to make smooth the pathway to that other life beyond the grave. Her great experience and large store of information enabled her to give valuable advice to our young people, which, now the she is dead, is a precious treasure to our people.

That she leaves a whole community of friends to mourn her untimely loss, and who deeply sympathize with the bereaved hearts of her relatives we know, and if she leaves an enemy we know it, and we will do our best to say that through all the vicissitudes of the last ten years she has been his firm and faithful friend, and that knowing well her many excellencies and goodness of heart, he pays this humble tribute of respect to her memory, not that it can do her any good, or heal the wounds of her bereaved relatives, but that the living may treasure her memory in their hearts, and emulate her example of a life of usefulness.

For many years she had been a member of the Universalist church, and on many occasions in sickness and in sorrow, stated to her friends her unshaken faith in the Universal salvation of all mankind; and that death had no terror for her beyond the thought of leaving the dear and loved ones behind. She died like one sweetly sinking to sleep, and to her weeping relatives, and especially to the aged father and loved sister, we say, dry those tears, for if in following a loved one to the grave there was ever reason to be comforted over a loss, the present certainly furnishes an illustration example.—Stockton (Mo.) Journal.

John P. Finman was killed by a train at Easton, Pa.

L. W. Owen, a high toned young man, a member of the Christian church, was caught pilloing his employer's safe, in Owensboro.

WEEKLY TOBACCO MARKET.

Inspector's weekly report Hopkinsville tobacco market, week ending Jan. 26, 1882.

Receipts for the week.....224 hhds. Receipts for the year.....932 hhds. Sales for the week.....207 hhds. Sales for the year.....673 hhds.

Inspector's monthly report of the Hopkinsville tobacco market, Jan. 1st, 1882.

Actual receipts for past month.....224 Actual receipts for the year.....932 Sales for past month.....207 Sales for the year.....673 Shipments for past month.....161 Shipments for the year.....515 Stock on hand.....1141

D. F. SUTTON, Inspector.

Tobacco sales by Abernathy & Co. Feb. 1st, 1882 of 48 hhds, as follows:

22 hhds, low, $6.30, 6.40, 6.25, 6.05, 5.85, 5.82, 5.85, 5.80, 6.75, 5.70, 5.65, 5.63, 5.60, 5.63, 5.60, 5.55, 5.40, 5.35, 5.35, 5.35, 5.35, 5.35.

14 hhds, Common Leaf, $6.00, 6.80, 6.55, 6.60, 6.35, 6.45, 6.45, 6.45, 6.70, 6.55, 6.55, 6.35, 6.30, 6.45.

11 hhds, Good Leaf, $9.75, 9.25, 7.50, 7.50, 7.50, 7.00, 7.25, 7.50, 7.50, 7.50, 7.50.

Market strong, and advancing on all grades. A few good types made their appearance, but the quality generally is poor.

Sales by Buckner & Wooldridge Feb. 1st 1882 58 hhds, tobacco as follows:

8 hhds, medium leaf, $8.00, 8.00, 7.70, 7.40, 7.15, 7.60, 7.00, 7.00.

7 hhds, low to common mixed leaf, $6.85, 6.75, 6.60, 6.50, 6.40, 6.70, 6.30.

18 hhds, medium to good lug, $6.60, 6.80, 6.45, 6.60, 6.50, 6.80, 6.80, 6.50, 6.35, 6.10, 6.05, 6.00, 6.35, 6.30, 6.60, 6.70, 6.10, 6.00, 6.10.

25 hhds, common low and thrashy lugs $5.75, 5.65, 5.85, 5.55, 5.10, 5.40, 5.70, 5.75, 5.85, 5.55, 5.10, 5.40, 5.45, 5.40-5.60, 5.75, 5.00, 5.75, 5.50, 5.00.

Markets, firm this week with a fair advance on both lugs and leaf, especially for lugs, and we would advise our friends to ship their lugs to market and accept fair prices. Average on 43 hhds, lugs, $5.90, return.

Sales by J. K. Gant & Sons, Feb. 1, 1882 40 hhds, as follows:

21 hhds, of lugs and trash from $5.30 to 6.00

10 hhds, common and low leaf from $6.60, to 7.00

9 hhds, medium leaf from $7.75, to 8.60.

Market firm on all grades. Prices very satisfactory to planters.

Sales by Nelson & Jessup, Feb. 2, 1882, 51 hhds, as follows:

15 hhds, good leaf, $7.25, 8.80, 8.60, 8.60, 8.25, 8.00, 7.85, 7.70, 7.60, 7.35, 7.20, 7.20, 7.05, 8.10, common leaf, $7.00, 7.00, 7.00, 7.95, 6.90, 6.60, 6.40.

24 hhds, good to common lugs, $6.50, to 6.00.

We quote the market very strong with an advance of 1 cent on all grades. The bid, at $10.25 was given and sold by Mr. A. J. Cooper, of Bennettstown.

Sales by Wheeler, Mills & Co, Feb. 2, of 29 Hog-heads.

5 hhds, common leaf, $7.00, 6.75, 6.80, 6.70.

15 hhds, lugs, $6.40, 6.40, 6.15, 6.65, 5.50, 5.75, 5.65, 5.30, 5.55, 5.55, 5.65, 5.50, 5.35, 5.35, 5.05.

Market firm, advance of 75 cents to $1. on lugs.

The commissioner of Internal revenue reports the quantity of spirits in distillery warehouses, Feb. 1 to be valued at $73,800, 914, taxable gallons.

RETAIL MARKET REPORT.

CORRECTED WEEKLY BY E. W. HENDERSON.

Pork..... 7 1/2 to 8c Bacon, Shoulders..... 8c Sides..... 12 1/2c Hams, country..... 13 to 14c Hams, sugar cured..... 14 to 15c Flour, choice..... $7.50 "good"..... $7.00 Molasses choice N.O..... 60 to 75c "in half bbls"..... 50 to 67c Maple Syrup..... $1.85 Golden Drip, pure..... $1.50 to 60c Candles..... 18 to 20c Butter..... 30c Eggs..... 30c Hominy, gallon..... $1 Corn meal..... $3.75 Clover seed..... $3.75 Cut nails, rate..... 13c Land, snow-flake..... 15c Beans, navy..... $4.00 "Dried"..... 6c Coffee, Rio..... 10 to 16c "Java"..... 25 to 30c "Mexican or Cardova"..... 15c Cheese, factory..... 20c "Young American"..... 20c Rice, Carolina..... 8 to 10c Sugar, No. O..... 9 to 10c "granulated"..... 11c Salt, 7 lb. bbl..... $2.50 Potatoes, Irish..... $1.00 "Sweet"..... $1.00 Black-eyed Peas, bu..... $2.00 Mackerel, kit..... 75c to $1.00 Lemons, doz..... 30 to 40c Oranges, doz..... 50 to 75c

CANNED GOODS.

Corn, doz..... $1.25 to $1.75 Tomatoes, doz..... $1.25 to $1.75 Pickle, gallon..... 15c Honey, extract lb..... 10 to 20c "comb"..... 10 to 20c

Cheating Tobacco, lb. 55 to $1.25 Ties, choice to fancy 60 to $1.00 "mixed to good 75 to $1.00

Axle grease..... $1.00 Coal oil..... 20c

GOLD.

Great chances to make money. Those who always take advantage of the good chances for making money that are offered, generally become wealthy, while those who do not improve such chances remain in poverty. We want many men, women, boys and girls to do right in their own localities. Any one can do the work and pay more than ten times ordinary wages. Expensive outfits furnished free. Those who succeed fail to make money rapidly. You can devote your whole time to it or only your spare moments. Full information and full details in circular sent free. Send for circular. Dec. 13/81.

PATENTS.

P. A. Lehmann, Solicitor for Patents, and for all kinds of legal business, Washington, D. C. All business connected with Patents, whether before the United States or Foreign Courts, will be attended to. No fee unless a patent is secured. Send for circular. Dec. 13/81.

OPIMUM.

AND MORPHINE.

AND MORPHINE.

